USEFUL INFORMATION

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: the passenger is entitled to withdraw, which must be formalized to the Adria Ferries shipping company in writing. The conditions for cancellations are as follows:

- Up to 20 days before departure, 80% of the ticket price will be refunded.
- From 19 days up to 5 days before departure, 70% of the ticket will be refunded
- From 4 days to 1 day before departure, 50% of the ticket will be refunded.
- No reimbursement is foreseen for withdrawals communicated after the aforementioned terms.

This discipline also applies to open date tickets. Passengers who do not show up for boarding, without having previously canceled the trip, are not entitled to any refund. Refunds are made exclusively in the country of issue of the ticket, through the issuing office provided that the cancellation is registered in the electronic procedure.

LUGGAGE: the passenger can only bring hand luggage with him. Passengers traveling with cars are allowed to leave their luggage in the cars. There is, depending on the ship on line, a paid luggage storage service.

PETS: passengers can bring pets in tow. For the clauses governing the regulation relating to animals on board, please refer to the document, in PDF format, on the website of the shipping company (www.adriaferries.com).

CHECK-IN: passengers already booked, even if they have a ticket, are required to report to the boarding agency at least three hours before departure time to complete the check-in formalities and security checks. In case of delay, the Company reserves the right to cancel the corresponding reservations.

COMMERCIAL VEHICLES: for reservations and information on the embarkation of commercial vehicles for export, used for transporting goods or containing goods subject to customs formalities, strictly contact the cargo office at our call center: +39-071 50211621 or check on the official Adria Ferries website (www.adriaferries.com).

TIME CHANGE: the departure and arrival times are indicated in local time and are intended as pilot / pilot. Itineraries and timetables may be subject to change without notice. The Company is not liable for sudden changes due to force majeure or technical reasons.

OPEN TICKETS: open date tickets are valid for one year from the date of issue. Any fare differences must be regulated by the passengers. In case of cancellation and refund, the penalties provided will be applied.

PREGNANT WOMEN: pregnant women will not be accepted for boarding if they have already completed the 24th week. Passengers who have not completed the 24th week are required to submit a written communication to the board, presenting a medical certificate issued no later than 72 hours before departure. This certificate must expressly authorize the trip and must be delivered to the ship's officer. Boarding will entail acceptance by the Passengers of the risks associated with the absence on board of assistance (of a specialist type) and of structures suitable for managing any emergencies related to the condition of pregnancy, as well as the specific nature of transport by sea with consequent difficulty of access external assistance, with consequent indemnification and exemption from any and all liability of ADRIA FERRIES SpA and to all staff.

DOCUMENTS: passengers must be in possession of a passport or other valid document for expatriation and the Company is not responsible for non-departure due to documents not in order for expatriation. Therefore no reimbursement is foreseen for such cases.

COVID-19: the regulatory provisions change abruptly and it is the responsibility of each passenger to check before each journey - both outward and return - the regional, national and foreign restrictions in force published in the respective institutional channels.
